About the Author Home business guru, Kristie Tamsevicius passionately promotes the joys of motherhood while working from home. America's favorite small business success story, she is founder of WebMomz.com, an online community for work-at-home parents. Kristie is an energetic, creative mom with over 12 years of experience in media, marketing, and web development. As a web developer, Kristie has helped hundreds of entrepreneurs to make their business dreams a reality. She is an expert in building a business from the ground up. Her credits include co-hosting the Working from Home radio show with Paul and Sarah Edwards, and being the featured Mom expert at TheClubNet and MomTown, and a regular columnist for Moms Business Magazine.
