Description:

Review

□Dolly Freed is my hero□.[If] this smart, engaging, funny, and frank manifesto□doesn't make you want to quit the rat race at least a little bit, then you must be one big, fat rat."

--Vice Magazine

“Compulsively readable” [In] this strange, engaging hymn to the laid-back life now, in 2010, one message comes out loud and clear. As the 18-year-old sage Dolly Freed wrote: “I refuse to spend the first 60 years of my life worrying about the last 20.”

--New York Times Art Beat

“Dolly is a sharp writer, an autodidact and an 18-year-old of unusual competence and grit” [T] here’s nothing precious about Possum Living: it’s genuine in a way few books are,”

--Jezebel

“this book will not only make you laugh but might actually inspire you to embrace a simpler life.”

--Oprah Magazine

“An elegant memoir”

--Philadelphia City Paper
