Description:

Review

“Dolly Freed is my hero. [If] this smart, engaging, funny, and frank manifesto doesn’t make you want to quit the rat race at least a little bit, then you must be one big, fat rat.”

--Vice Magazine

□Compulsively readable□[In]this strange, engaging hymn to the laid-back life now, in 2010, one message comes out loud and clear. As the 18-year-old sage Dolly Freed wrote: □I refuse to spend the first 60 years of my life worrying about the last 20.”

--New York Times Art Beat

□Dolly is a sharp writer, an autodidact and an 18-year-old of unusual competence and grit□[T]here’s nothing precious about Possum Living: it's genuine in a way few books are,□”

--Jezebel

□□this book will not only make you laugh but might actually inspire you to embrace a simpler life.”

--Oprah Magazine

□An elegant memoir”

--Philadelphia City Paper --This text refers to an alternate edition.
