Description:

Review "CNBC broadcaster Joe Kernan and his young daughter Blake have put together a readable, informative, lively primer on free-market capitalism."
(-Steve Forbes)

"This book will help renew your faith in free markets, restore the commonsense value of fiscal responsibility, and pass these principles on to future generations of Americans at a time when they are needed most."

(-Representative Paul Ryan, (R-Wisc.))

"Your Teacher Said What?! is an essential read for any parent who wants to counter the anticapitalism taught to their children and for all who believe in free markets and what makes America great."

(-Donald Trump) --This text refers to the edition.

About the Author Joe Kernen is the coanchor of CNBC's longest-running program, the top-rated morning show Squawk Box. Before going into television he had a successful ten-year career as a stockbroker, and before that he earned a master's degree in molecular biology from MIT and worked at one of the world's leading cancer research centers. Blake Kernen is a sixth grade student. They live in New Jersey with Blake's mom, Penelope, and her little brother, Scott.
