Description:

Review Air Force wife's novel set at fictional England Air Force Base. ~ USA-Today

The Final Salute: Giving voice to these ghosts. ~ Military Times

Rodgers has created richly layered characters that compel readers to keep flipping the pages. ~ Bonnie Bartel Latino, Mobile Press-Register

I recommend this novel as a good description of military life and the inner workings of the way things are done, including the cover-up process. Also, if you don't read it for any other reason, read it for the enjoyment of it. ~ Katherine Boyer, Midwest Book Review

Until the very end, readers are intrigued by her colorful cast of characters that bring everything from love to betrayal amid the added struggle of military life. ~ Fort Worth, Texas Magazine

On the Write Track. ~ Family Magazine

Readable, intimate, tender - highly recommended. ~ Joyce Faulkner, President of Military Writers Society of America and award-winning author of In the Shadow of Suribachi. --Media - print and online --Media - print and online
